THE PLAN ROOM POST

From Plan Room Manager, John Grandetti

Changes to Private Planroom: I am sure many of you have received a code from a General Contractor that gives you the ability to access project documents through our site. We also have quite a few generals using the software in the area. While the basic functions will not change, there may be a few cosmetic changes and minor updates to the service that you will notice in the coming weeks. If you have any questions, please feel free to call or email the planroom.

OCILB Training: For any of our members who have a State License in HVAC, HY, PL, RE, EL, we provide an opportunity each fall to earn 10 OCILB Business Credits needed for continuing education as mandated by the state. This year, we are having Dr. Jerry Teplitz conduct four sessions on Thursday, October 28th geared towards improving sales and productivity in the office. Dr. Teplitz has been conducting seminars for over 30 years, and has spoken to wide range of groups, from Fortune 500 companies to trade associations, and these seminars promise to be a unique experience for those who attend. Please visit www.bxdayton.com for more information.

Your Time to Shine: Each year, the Builders Exchange of Dayton takes the opportunity to showcase our members and the stellar work they perform each year in the Miami Valley at our annual Teambuilding Night. If your firm has participated in a project in the Dayton area that you are particularly proud of, whether it is a particular design, a green building or an exemplary display of craftsmanship, we encourage you to nominate your work for consideration at our awards banquet.

In the coming weeks, you should be receiving nomination forms and instructions on the nomination process. Typically, these nominations are due by December and are judged by a panel of experts from the design and construction community.

Networking Opportunity: Now that Fall has officially begun, we are sure to see Holiday decorations in department stores and catalogs featuring the newest gadgets and gizmos sure to be the rage this Holiday season. Each year, the Builders Exchange hosts a networking event called the Construction Confluence to provide our members a night of fun and relaxation before the Holiday rush begins.

This year's confluence will be held at the Dayton Country Club on November 5th. Dinner and a show will be included, as well as a few other surprises we will be advertising in the coming weeks.

DRUG FREE SAFETY PROGRAM TRAINING CLASSES

BX Dayton and the Subcontractors Association of Western Ohio are pleased to announce their upcoming Drug Free Safety Program Training Classes.

The Ohio Bureau of Workers Compensation Drug Free Safety Program requires that your Employees receive 1 hour of Employee Training and that your Supervisors receive an additional 1 hour of Supervisor training each year the program is in effect.

Your Employees and Supervisors have probably sat through the training several years in a row and have complained to you that they have heard the same old thing over and over. This session is going to try to solve that problem. We have a new speaker that will be presenting portions of both the Supervisor and Employee Training Program.

SAWO/BX Dayton Drug and Alcohol Free Workplace Instructor, Rachel Pinkus, will be reviewing the basic policy information required. A United Way Representative will be talking about the impact of Drug and Alcohol Abuse on fellow workers, families, and the individual. Through lecture and real case scenarios, they will also explain their role in helping people find resources that will improve their lives such as job training programs, daycare opportunities, counseling services, and drug and alcohol cessation programs. They will also open up your employees eyes to the relationship between alcohol/drug abuse and the need for assistance.

As you can see, this session is designed to give you a quality presentation and an opportunity for you, your Employees, and your Supervisors to ask questions of a professional in this specialized area.

The session will be based around the BWC Drug Free Safety Program standard policy. We recommend that your employees come to this session with a copy of your specific policy in hand, so that they have the opportunities to ask question on items that might be unique to your policy.

One of the primary goals SAWO and BX Dayton is to strive to bring the construction industry quality educational program.

How to Persuade Customers and Employees Effectively

People call it the art of persuasion, but is it really an art? Or are there actually systematic approaches which can be used to better understand our own motivation and that of those you are trying to persuade? The session explores this question and offers participants a proven way to read their clients' behavior styles, which enables them to be even more successful persuaders.

So positive! Every phase of life could benefit from this.

Unlock innovative techniques

Speeding To Effective Time Mastery - Working Smarter, Not Harder

With the complexities of the business world today, there never seems to be enough time to accomplish everything we need to do. Through this program leaders will discover their own time management strengths and weaknesses leading to the development of a personal, effective time management strategy.

Switch on your effectiveness

Switched-On Selling

Whether you are selling a product or a service, this program is a powerful new approach for creating a successful selling strategy through direct brain re-education. This program assumes that participants already have some sales experience, understand the sales process, and would like to achieve greater success. It enables salespeople with some experience to "switch-on" their central nervous system for each step in the selling process resulting in greater sales effectiveness.

An extremely entertaining and resourceful program.

This seminar made me think I can succeed at anything I attempt!

Energize yourself and your team

Increasing Your Management Success Formula To New Levels of Excellence

With the increase in competition and changes in the workplace, the key to good management practices now requires a clear understanding of human behavior. Through this program managers will learn their own behavior style while they also receive a picture of the style of the people they have to manage. This information will allow them to better relate to and motivate their subordinates and is also valuable in team building, hiring, and the correct placement of personnel. Have your attendees ever had a negative day as a manager? How did they feel at the end of it? Tired, drained... Now, have your attendees ever had a positive day as a manager? How did they feel at the end of it? Energized. What if they could create every day to be a great day? What would that do to their management abilities? This program will show participants how to make every day that way through actual tools and techniques that will increase their energy levels for more effective management capabilities.

2010 MCAA REGION CMASONRY SKILLS COMPETITION

Saturday
October 23, 2010

The Mason Contractors Association of America will be conducting the 11th Annual International Masonry Skills Challenge on Friday, January 18, 2011 at the World of Masonry at World of Concrete in Las Vegas, NV. The contest is a showcase for skills training in the masonry industry, challenging winning apprentices from regional U.S. and foreign competitions to determine the top masonry apprentice at each level. The exciting competition spotlights our industry's finest young masons and focuses attention on careers in the masonry industry.

In order to be eligible to compete in the International competition, an apprentice must first have won a MCAA-sanctioned regional competition. You are invited to submit apprentices to compete in our Regional Challenge on October 23, 2010.

We look forward to a successful Regional Masonry Skills Challenge and to seeing your eligible apprentices compete in this exciting event. Your participation will help ensure our region is well represented in the International Competition.
