

Simon Rafferty, Vice President, BlackRock

Simon Rafferty, CIMA, Vice President, is a member of BlackRock's Multi-Asset Strategies Group and Product Strategist for the BlackRock Global Allocation Fund, responsible for representing the investment team on a global basis to both retail and institutional clients.

Prior to assuming his current responsibilities, Mr. Rafferty was Southern Regional Manager for Retail Sales in BlackRock's Australian business responsible for maintaining the firms retail and high net worth relationships across Victoria, Tasmania, South Australia and Western Australia. Prior to joining BlackRock in 2007 he worked as a financial advisor where he was made partner of his firm from 2004.

Mr. Rafferty holds a bachelor's degree in Information Technology from University of Canberra in 2001.