ORDER

Adopted: November 15, 2013Released: November 15, 2013

By the Chief, Media Bureau:

1. All commercial, full-power AM, FM, TV, LPTV, and Class A stations, and entities with attributable interests currently are required to file the biennial ownership report on FCC Form 323, no later than December 2, 2013, using information current as of October 1, 2013 (the “as of date”).¹ The opening of the 2013 biennial filing window, October 1, 2013, coincided with the government shutdown. As a result of the shutdown, the Commission’s Consolidated Database System (“CDBS”), through which the biennial ownership report is prepare and filed, was inaccessible. CDBS became available again on October 17, 2013 when the government re-opened.

2. On November 6, 2013, the Commission received a request to extend the Form 323 filing deadline to December 20, 2013, to account for the unavailability of CDBS during the government shutdown and to avoid a convergence of filing deadlines on or around December 2, 2013.² On November 8, 2013, the National Association of Broadcasters (“NAB”) filed comments in support of the Request for Extension of Time, arguing that maintaining a full 60-day window would serve the public interest.³

3. Based on our review of the Request for Extension of Time and NAB’s supportive comments and in recognition of the period that CDBS was not available to filers during the government shutdown, the Bureau hereby extends the filing deadline for the 2013 biennial ownership report until December 20, 2013. We stress that filers are encouraged to submit ownership reports as early as possible and to complete their Form 323 filings well in advance of the extended deadline whenever possible. This extension applies only to the 2013 biennial filing requirement.

4. Filers seeking additional advice on how to complete the form should consult the information contained in the form instructions (available on CDBS and on the Commission’s website at <http://www.fcc.gov/formpage.html>) and should review the information on the Bureau’s Form 323
