

The Dream Teacher

The noble calling of being a teacher
Is simply one kind word to say about those who impact
The world in positive ways that navigate throughout
A global society.

I dream to be that excellent teacher
That touches the world through developing minds—
Young visionaries will be transformed into experts
Of diverse careers in the world.

I dream of teaching students
Who will enter the world fully prepared
To meet the challenges of a burden society
As a result of rigorous study in the course of a school year.

I dream to be that teacher who shapes the future—
Future lawyers
Future doctors
Future presidents

I long to become that teacher who not only reports to class
But shows up with best practices and best results in my students' profiles of Scores off the chart of major assessments of
The ACT
The SAT
The MAT
The GRE

My career dream is to be skillful in teaching
Knowledgeable in subject
Promising in instructional delivery.

I dream not only becoming the Teacher of the Year.

But I dream of being the National Teacher of the Year, where my influence will not be limited to touching one child,
but one world.
