

Approved Trainings

Ohio Medical Reserve Corps volunteers are required to take an approved training in order to be eligible for liability protection under Ohio Revised Code 121.404. For more information, contact local MRC coordinators.

The following provides a general listing of approved trainings.

- Introduction to Medical Reserve Corps (Local Units)
- Introduction to Medical Reserve Corps – Online (Offered by some units)
- Core Disaster Life Support – CDLS or eCDLS
- Basic Disaster Life Support - BDLS
- Advanced Disaster Life Support – ADLS
- Modular Emergency Medical System (Awareness Level) – MEMS
- Special Needs Shelter Training / Exercise (Northwest)
- Helping People Find Strength Following Disaster – (Ohio Department of Mental Health)
- Ohio Veterinary Emergency Response (OVER) Trainings
- Disaster Training / Just-in-Time Training at Volunteer Reception Centers (In Development)
- Children In Disasters Training (In Development)
- Psychological First Aid (In Development – ODMH review)
- Strategic National Stockpile – SNS (In Development)
- MRC Core Competencies Recommended Trainings (Under Review)
- * Recommend ICS 100 / 700