8 SUSHI TEN

SUSHI 10 is the newest shop in the growing Japan Marketplace at Kenny Centre. 10 indicates the “best” rating. Ten also happens to mean “heaven” in Japanese! We hear over and over from our guests that ours is their favorite Sushi. Because our store sells top-quality fresh fish, we have our very own source of neta (fish cut especially for use in sushi). It’s difficult for anyone to compete with such freshness, taste and variety!

9 BELLE’S BREAD

Belle’s Bread is a family owned bakery offering French-inspired Japanese baked goods. Owner Takashi Takenaka immigrated from Japan in 1972 and opened Restaurant Japan (now known as Akai Hana) in 1987. Over the past 30 years, he has opened five additional stores in the same shopping center, now known as Japan Marketplace. Belle’s Bread was the 6th store added to the complex and completes the Japanese shopping center. With his French wife handling the accounting and his daughter managing the bakery, it is truly a family affair!

AMERICAN/SOUTHERN

1 HEN QUARTER

Hen Quarter Dublin artfully blends sophisticated southern cuisine with an upscale modern lounge feel. While rustic charm and traditions have their place, especially in the south. As we carefully prepare your food and handcraft your cocktails we believe that the thing about our cuisine is it brings folks together from all walks of life and puts smiles on their faces. So, come let us take you on the main line through the south from the bayous of Louisiana to the Spanish moss-covered oaks of Georgia. Then on to the rocky top mountains of Tennessee and down home through the blue grass of Kentucky.

INDIAN

2 AWADH INDIA RESTAURANT

When you enter my restaurant, you will find a clean and friendly atmosphere, and me, your Chef, walking the floor greeting my guests and answering any question you may have. Being a service oriented Chef, I absolutely love meeting and getting to know you. I have over 20 years experience in providing authentic Indian and Indo-Chinese cuisine. For 10 years, I learned from the great Chefs of India. I studied and absorbed as much as I could. In 1997 I graduated from the culinary school in Lucknow (formerly known as Awadh in the old days), specializing in Indian and Indo-Chinese Cuisine. It was my pleasure to bring these special recipes to the United States and share these exquisite meals with very special people. I am very honored to bring all the real tastes of 'Awadh' to this restaurant in Columbus. Please allow yourself to be enveloped with aromatic spices, pure meats without antibiotics, and homemade Naan and Lassi.
