ANNUAL CONFERENCE & EXHIBITS

SEPTEMBER 5-7, 2018

Hyatt Regency Huntington Beach Resort & Spa

Pre-Conference requires a separate registration fee (not included with General Conference)

PRE-CONFERENCE | September 5 | 8:30am - 12:30pm

A Focus on Key Employment Law Issues in 2018 | Panel with Veronica Gray, Partner, Nossaman LLP

Is your ASC meeting the demands regarding employment law including sexual harassment? The legal landscape of employer responsibilities is constantly evolving. The increased use of technology provides new concerns for employers. 2017 was a year where sexual harassment took center stage, significantly impacting our culture and triggering change in 2018. This session will address the latest developments in employment law and how to effectively address them, and will include panel discussions on sexual harassment, wage and hour law, leave laws, and provide an update on emerging issues. The presentation will provide best practices for the topics discussed and provide tools and resources for attendees to communicate to their Boards and staff. This in-depth session is crucial for the ASC Administrator, Director of Nursing or anyone in a leadership role within an ASC.

CONFERENCE KEYNOTE

Thursday, September 6

MARK EATON
NBA ALL-STAR/AUTHOR

The Four Commitments of a Winning and Safe Team

Take your team to the next level of success and safety

Experience the drama and excitement of NBA basketball as Mark Eaton shares the amazing story of how he found his extraordinary ability and rose from auto mechanic to NBA All-Star. Get ready to get into action as Mark shows you how to apply the strategies of sports coaching to build your dream team and take your organization to the next level. This exhilarating, action-packed presentation will provide your team with proven actionable ideas that will impact their commitment to each other and to the safety and well-being of everyone in your workplace.

Conference Begins | September 5 | 3:00pm

September 5 | 3:00pm

Am I Running an Ambulatory Surgery Center or a Nuclear Power Plant? High Reliability Principles Come to Health Care

William M. Isenberg, MD, PhD

As more and more US procedural health care is being rendered in ASCs using increasingly complex technologies, it becomes clear why the principles and processes that have served similarly high-risk fields of endeavor well are being applied to our work. The related principles of reliability and resilience will be discussed as they relate to optimizing patient and staff safety, joy of work, patient satisfaction and operational effectiveness.

September 5 | 4:00pm

Every 1/2 Second Counts | Ridley Barron

Carrying the power of personal experience, Ridley approaches the subject of Patient Safety as few can. His powerful message of hope, healing, and forgiveness empowers patients, families, clinicians and those impacted by adverse medical events. It leaves a lasting impression and offers challenging improvements in patient safety. Ridley's story of hope has continued to have an impact with business executives, members of our military, health care workers and many families. The power of his story is evident by the number of people who have said it has changed their lives forever.

September 7 | 8:00am

The Impact of Driving Surgical Cases to the

ASC Environment | James Robinson and David Cowling

Robinson's research focuses on the biotechnology, medical device, insurance and health care delivery sectors. This includes the impact of reference-based benefits on consumer choices, facility prices, employer spending and surgical outcomes for procedures performed at ASCs. This session will focus on the outcomes of this research and his forecast and solutions for success in health care. The largest employer in the state, CalPERS, has implemented reference-based pricing for its members based upon this research. David Cowling will address their success in implementing this program and their plans for expansion.

September 7 | 9:00am

Transparency and Patient Outcomes

in the ASC Industry | Michelle George, RN, MSN, CASC

Health care consumers and payors serve as drivers to a more transparent environment where both clinical quality outcomes and cost are becoming publicly available. ASCs are stepping up to meet this challenge by engaging more sophisticated platforms and external sources for data capture, analysis and benchmarking comparisons. Simultaneously, professional organizations are increasing services and options for creating transparency. This session will provide an overview of upcoming public reporting requirements, expanded methodology for measuring outcomes and use of external sources, such as registries, to meet these challenges.

WEDNESDAY SESSIONS • CONFERENCE BEGINS

3:00 PM to 4:00 PM

Am I Running an Ambulatory Surgery Center or a Nuclear Power Plant?
High Reliability Principles Come to Health Care

William M. Isenberg, MD, PhD

Vice President, Patient Safety, Sutter Health

As more and more US procedural health care is being rendered in ASCs using increasingly complex technologies, it becomes clear why the principles and processes that have served similarly high-risk fields of endeavor well—commercial airlines, nuclear power, naval avionics—are being applied to our work. The related principles of reliability and resilience will be discussed as they relate to optimizing patient and staff safety, joy of work, patient satisfaction and operational effectiveness.

4:00 PM to 5:00 PM

Every ½ Second Counts
Ridley Barron, Author

Ridley is an author, internationally known speaker and tireless advocate for patient safety. Carrying the power of personal experience, he approaches the subject of Patient Safety as few can. His powerful message of hope, healing, and forgiveness empowers patients, families, clinicians and those impacted by adverse medical events. It leaves a lasting impression and offers challenging improvements in patient safety. Ridley's story of hope has continued to have an impact with business executives, members of our military, health care workers and many families. The power of his story is evident by the number of people who have said it has changed their lives forever.

THURSDAY BREAKOUT SESSIONS

FINANCIAL

1:00 PM to 2:00 PM

Optimizing Site of Care Shift to Ambulatory Surgery Centers

Jeff Dottl, CPA, Principal

Physician Surgery Centers, LLC

This session will speak to creating the optimal contracting and reimbursement construct and the infrastructure to drive appropriate device-related surgeries to high quality, more cost-efficient ASCs, and to bring device alternatives to the surgeon to support value-based care delivery.

2:05 PM to 3:05 PM

Know your Business by Maximizing your Revenue Cycle and Reducing your Case Costing

Jho Outlaw

*Senior Vice President, Revenue Cycle Services
Surgical Information Systems*

Understand how the ASC's revenue cycle can be maximized to drive financial change. Learn how to manage your case costing, turn data into action to increase the performance and drive financial success.

4:00 PM to 5:00 PM

How to Survive and Thrive as an Independent ASC

Andrew Rosen, VP, Development, Surgery Partners

George Goodwin, American Group President Surgery Partners

ASCs have made an indelible impact over the last few decades by offering efficient, high quality, and cost-effective care. However, with all of the shifts in reimbursement it is becoming increasingly more difficult to maintain a highly productive and profitable independent ASC. This session will focus on the key areas ASCs need to address in order to survive and thrive as an independent ASC.

HUMAN RESOURCES

1:00 PM to 2:00 PM

To Tweet or Not to Tweet

Alden Parker, Regional Managing Partner

Fisher Phillips, LLP

With technology at our fingertips, it provides new opportunities to communicate with our patients but also raises important concerns. The purpose of this course is to explain Twitter, LinkedIn and other social media and how to use them effectively and correctly in the ASC.

2:05 PM to 3:05 PM

Effective Performance, Discharge & Discipline

Joseph T. Ortiz, Partner, Best Best and Krieger LLP

At the heart of an ASC is a competent and team-based staff. How should an ASC administrator provide feedback, goals and motivation?

Attendees of this course will learn to do performance appraisals and learn how to use them in relation to compensation.

4:00 PM to 5:00 PM

Finding Common Ground with Conflict Resolution

Michael Oden, Behavior Specialist, Final Step

This program will enhance the life of the participants by creating awareness and understanding around one's behavior and will give individuals the tools needed to provide the recipient with long lasting relationships with their peers, clients and management. Michael's teaching and mentorship immediately improves the workplace environment by dramatically accelerating growth, effectiveness, morale, productivity and bottom line profit margins.

CLINICAL

1:00 PM to 2:00 PM

Selected Topics in Infection Control and Prevention

Jeffrey Silvers, MD

Medical Director of Infection Prevention, Sutter Health

Shingles, Influenza, C. difficile, Antibiotic Resistant Organisms: CRE, Legionella - organisms with increasing antimicrobial resistance, virulence, and complex modes of transmission, as well as inadequate or waning immunity from vaccinations, are constantly challenging the health care systems to prevent health care workers and patients from developing disease. Although ambulatory surgery centers have shorter times of potential exposure from any one patient, the risks are still present and progressively increasing.

2:05 PM to 3:05 PM

Emergency Preparedness from a Real Life Experience (Wildfire and Lessons Learned)

Marion Auld, Administrator

Santa Rosa Surgery & Endoscopy

Debra Ledak, VP, Clinical Operations

United Surgical Partners International

This session will provide an overview of the new Emergency Preparedness Standards that went into effect November 2017. In addition, the speakers will provide their experiences, challenges and lessons learned from real life disasters, including the recent California fires.

4:00 PM to 5:00 PM

Anesthesia New Protocols and Guidelines/ Opioid Usage

Stuart Simon, MD, SVP-Medical Affairs

United Surgical Partners International

Optimum pain control is crucial in the ambulatory surgery setting. As utilization of ambulatory surgery continues to rise, the complexity of perioperative pain management is increasing. The recent opioid epidemic has shown that pain management drugs are often abused with resulting adverse effects on morbidity and mortality, thus further complicating pain management. This session will provide an overview of anesthesia protocols and guidelines to support optimum pain control, support patient safety, and reduce adverse outcomes.

THURSDAY SESSIONS

8:30 AM to 9:30 AM

Legislative and Regulatory Update

Bryce W.A. Docherty

Partner, KP Public Affairs

William Prentice

CEO, Ambulatory Surgery Center Association

This popular session will discuss recent national and state legislative and regulatory activities. As the Trump Presidency evolves, this session explores the health care implications ASCs can anticipate on both the national and state level. Bryce Docherty, CASA Legislative Advocate, will update attendees on the issues affecting California ASCs and Bill Prentice, CEO, ASCA, will highlight the national perspective.

9:45 AM to 11:00 PM

KEYNOTE - Mark Eaton - NBA All-Star & Author The Four Commitments of a Winning and Safe Team - Take your team to the next level of success and safety

Experience the drama and excitement of NBA basketball as Mark Eaton shares the amazing story of how he found his extraordinary ability and rose from auto mechanic to NBA All-Star. Get ready to get into action as Mark shows you how to apply the strategies of sports coaching to build your dream team and take your organization to the next level. This exhilarating, action-packed presentation will provide your team with proven actionable ideas that will impact their commitment to each other and to the safety and well-being of everyone in your workplace.

QUALITY

1:00 PM to 2:00 PM

The Quest for Peer-fect Peer Review

Michael J. Felsen, Esq., CIP

Registered In-House Counsel, Sutter Health

If your ASC lacks a robust peer review process, this presentation will provide the 5 Ws: what, why, where, when, who and how of driving a meaningful peer review program to ensure patient safety.

2:05 PM to 3:05 PM

Event Investigation and Analysis

Lori Seymore, BSN, RN, CPHRM

Senior Director, Risk Management, AMSURG

Attendees will be provided with an overview of the sentinel event management process beginning with a review of the event investigation and analysis. Next, the process of a comprehensive root cause analysis will be presented along with a review of the California state reporting requirements.

4:00 PM to 5:00 PM

Enhancing the Patient Experience at your Facility

Ann Shimek, RN, MSN, CASC

Senior Vice President, Clinical Operations

United Surgical Partners International

During this presentation we will be looking at the care that ASCs provide through the eyes of the patient. We will discuss how they perceive the care they receive and offer ideas and suggestions that you can take back to your center to improve and enhance the patient experience.

ACCREDITATION 4-1-1

5:05 PM to 6:05 PM

A new twist on a familiar topic! CASA invites you to hear about changes, opportunities, and challenges from experts representing the accrediting agencies during concurrent sessions. You are encouraged to ask questions, share your thoughts, and participate in an open dialogue during these informal agency-specific sessions. This is an excellent chance to improve your understanding of the regulations that are vitally important to your center.

FRIDAY SESSIONS

8:00 AM to 9:00 AM

The Impact of Driving Surgical Cases to the ASC Environment

James Robinson, Director

Berkeley Center for Health Technology,

University of California at Berkeley

David Cowling, Chief of Center for Innovation

CalPERS

James Robinson's research focuses on the biotechnology, medical device, insurance and health care delivery sectors. This includes the impact of reference-based benefits on consumer choices, facility prices, employer spending and surgical outcomes for procedures performed at ASCs. This session will focus on the outcomes of this research and his forecast and solutions for success in health care. The largest employer in the state, CalPERS has implemented reference-based pricing for its members based upon this research. David Cowling will address their success in implementing this program and their plans for expansions.

9:00 AM to 10:00 AM

Transparency and Patient Outcomes in the ASC Industry

Michelle George, RN, MSN, CASC

VP, Professional Development, Surgical Care Affiliates

Health Care consumers and payors serve as drivers of a more transparent environment where both clinical quality outcomes and cost are becoming publicly available. ASCs are stepping up to meet this challenge by engaging more sophisticated platforms and external sources for data capture, analysis and benchmarking comparisons. Simultaneously, professional organizations are increasing services and options for creating transparency. This session will provide an overview of upcoming public reporting requirements, expanded methodology for measuring outcomes and use of external sources, such as registries, to meet these challenges.

10:20 AM to 12:00 PM

Regulatory Update

Regulatory Panel

This popular session will review and provide the latest update by ASC regulators in California, including the California Department of Public Health and the Medical Board of California. It will include representation by accrediting bodies approved for California. This session will review that oversight, common questions and whose authority the oversight falls to. This will be an interactive session allowing the audience to ask questions of the panel.

Thursday Night Special Event
