A selection committee of five members worked during the fall to identify qualified applicants. A total of seven proposals for management services were received. The committee narrowed the field to three and those three were interviewed during late November by the full board.

Both the new team and existing management will be on duty during January. Dan and Joyce Schlosser will focus on closing out the existing office and records as they prepare to retire and Bob Pope and his staff will concentrate on all things going forward.

Thanks....

Thanks to all for your participation and support of OWWA since we had the opportunity to begin working with you on April 7 of 1990.

It has been an interesting and rewarding experience. Although we look forward to retirement we will miss interaction with all of you and will long remember friends made along the way.

Joyce and I had the opportunity to meet personally with Bob, Valerie, Bill, Rachel and Kate recently. They spent more than three hours in our office to insure that they are prepared to serve the organization beginning next month.

We were impressed with their attitude, talent and enthusiasm and are confident they will take OWWA to the next level. - Dan and Joyce.
