

THIS EMPLOYEE IS EXEMPT FROM THE STAY AT HOME ORDER

IN RESPONSE TO THE CORONAVIRUS/COVID-19 THREAT, on March 23, 2020 the Ohio Department of Health issued a Public Health Order directing that all businesses, except those identified as "Essential Businesses and Operations" to stay at home, work from home or close all operations until April 6, 2020, after which time the situation will be reassessed. The Order defines construction work of all types including, but not limited to, public works, hospitals, schools, business, and housing construction as "Essential Businesses and Operations" to include "Essential Infrastructure" which includes construction work and the manufacture, distribution, and supply chain for construction materials and equipment. The person in possession of this card _____ is an employee of _____ and is engaged in the work of our business, a construction business and/or supply chain for construction that is defined as an "Essential Businesses and Operations" in the State of Ohio. The person in possession of this card is to be allowed to continue to and from work and to do the work of our business unimpeded as the Stay at Home Public Health Order does not apply to him/her while engaged in the work of our company or traveling to and from work.

_____, President

For confirmation contact NCBA Attorney, Mark F. Craig, Esquire at 440.973.6827 (01809216)

THIS EMPLOYEE IS EXEMPT FROM THE STAY AT HOME ORDER

IN RESPONSE TO THE CORONAVIRUS/COVID-19 THREAT, on March 23, 2020 the Ohio Department of Health issued a Public Health Order directing that all businesses, except those identified as "Essential Businesses and Operations" to stay at home, work from home or close all operations until April 6, 2020, after which time the situation will be reassessed. The Order defines construction work of all types including, but not limited to, public works, hospitals, schools, business, and housing construction as "Essential Businesses and Operations" to include "Essential Infrastructure" which includes construction work and the manufacture, distribution, and supply chain for construction materials and equipment. The person in possession of this card _____ is an employee of _____ and is engaged in the work of our business, a construction business and/or supply chain for construction that is defined as an "Essential Businesses and Operations" in the State of Ohio. The person in possession of this card is to be allowed to continue to and from work and to do the work of our business unimpeded as the Stay at Home Public Health Order does not apply to him/her while engaged in the work of our company or traveling to and from work.

_____, President

For confirmation contact NCBA Attorney, Mark F. Craig, Esquire at 440.973.6827 (01809216)

THIS EMPLOYEE IS EXEMPT FROM THE STAY AT HOME ORDER

IN RESPONSE TO THE CORONAVIRUS/COVID-19 THREAT, on March 23, 2020 the Ohio Department of Health issued a Public Health Order directing that all businesses, except those identified as "Essential Businesses and Operations" to stay at home, work from home or close all operations until April 6, 2020, after which time the situation will be reassessed. The Order defines construction work of all types including, but not limited to, public works, hospitals, schools, business, and housing construction as "Essential Businesses and Operations" to include "Essential Infrastructure" which includes construction work and the manufacture, distribution, and supply chain for construction materials and equipment. The person in possession of this card _____ is an employee of _____ and is engaged in the work of our business, a construction business and/or supply chain for construction that is defined as an "Essential Businesses and Operations" in the State of Ohio. The person in possession of this card is to be allowed to continue to and from work and to do the work of our business unimpeded as the Stay at Home Public Health Order does not apply to him/her while engaged in the work of our company or traveling to and from work.

_____, President

For confirmation contact NCBA Attorney, Mark F. Craig, Esquire at 440.973.6827 (01809216)

THIS EMPLOYEE IS EXEMPT FROM THE STAY AT HOME ORDER

IN RESPONSE TO THE CORONAVIRUS/COVID-19 THREAT, on March 23, 2020 the Ohio Department of Health issued a Public Health Order directing that all businesses, except those identified as "Essential Businesses and Operations" to stay at home, work from home or close all operations until April 6, 2020, after which time the situation will be reassessed. The Order defines construction work of all types including, but not limited to, public works, hospitals, schools, business, and housing construction as "Essential Businesses and Operations" to include "Essential Infrastructure" which includes construction work and the manufacture, distribution, and supply chain for construction materials and equipment. The person in possession of this card _____ is an employee of _____ and is engaged in the work of our business, a construction business and/or supply chain for construction that is defined as an "Essential Businesses and Operations" in the State of Ohio. The person in possession of this card is to be allowed to continue to and from work and to do the work of our business unimpeded as the Stay at Home Public Health Order does not apply to him/her while engaged in the work of our company or traveling to and from work.

_____, President

For confirmation contact NCBA Attorney, Mark F. Craig, Esquire at 440.973.6827 (01809216)

{01809216}