

Frank R. Rudolph Award Nomination Form

Frank R. Rudolph Award, the association's most prestigious honor. Named after Francis Rudolph, was utility manager in Greendale, Indiana, for more than 35 years and the award is given to individuals who make significant contributions to public power in Indiana.

It is the highest award granted by the association and is bestowed in recognition of exceptional leadership in and dedication to public power.

Eligibility: Any employee of an IMEA Member Utility who has been an active participant in Public Power for at least 15 years is eligible.

Criteria:

Nominees should:

- have contributed to the electric utility industry generally through their achievements or sustained performance;
- have contributed substantially to public power; and
- have been widely recognized within the state and the association.

Nominee Name

Present Position

Organization

Email address

Address

Phone

City, State and Zip

Number of years working in Public Power

Contributions to electric utility industry and public power field

Previous awards and Recognition

Additional qualifications

Your Name

Title

Utility

Email address

Address

Phone

City, State and Zip