

Proper Use Of Equipment Safety Message

TAKE CARE OF
THIS EQUIPMENT
IF IT DOESN'T WORK
... NEITHER DO YOU

Understanding the proper use of equipment prevents accidents, injuries and damage. Proficiency ensures a work environment where personal safety and equipment longevity are at the forefront.

Operate and use with care! Proper equipment use is crucial. Follow guidelines, check for defects and prioritize safety. Your diligence keeps accidents at bay and upholds a secure, productive work environment. Safety first, always.

Insulating Protective Equipment (IPE) includes items such as:

- Insulating (rubber) line hose, blankets, and hoods.
- Insulating barriers made of fiberglass or phenolic resin.
- Live-line tools such as hotsticks, switchsticks, and shotgun sticks.
- Plastic or fiberglass hardcover items that can be installed with live-line tools.

Insulating Personal Protective Equipment (IPPE) includes:

- Rubber Gloves
- Rubber Sleeves