2024 IMEA ANNUAL BUSINESS MEETING RECOGNITION AWARDS BANQUET

Annually, the Indiana Municipal Electric Association recognizes individuals whose work has made a positive impact in both their Utility & Community. Honorees are recognized at the IMEA Annual Business Meeting Recognition Awards Banquet.

Award categories include:

The Frank R. Rudolph Award

The IMEA Frank R. Rudolph Award, the association's most prestigious honor. Named after Francis R. Rudolph, was utility manager in Greendale, Indiana, for more than 38 years and the award is given to individuals who make significant contributions to public power in Indiana.

It is the highest award granted by the association and is bestowed in recognition of exceptional leadership in and dedication to public power. This year's award recipient is Shawn Lickey, Superintendent of Columbia City Municipal Utilities.

Distinguished Service Award

The IMEA distinguished service award is an award given to recognize exceptional contributions and services to the IMEA organization. This year's award recipients are Tim Erickson, Safety & Training Consultant for IMEA, Indiana Municipal Electric Association and Midwest Utility Sales.

Careers in Public Power

Public power is more to communities than just an essential utility. It is a source of unique and fulfilling career opportunities in your local community. Employees make a difference by serving their own neighborhoods and families. Talented high school, college and technical college graduates and even technology, environmental and public service professionals will find that competitive salaries aren't the only thing attractive about careers in public power.
