Things LEADERS Say:

“To develop you from where you are right now, to where you want to be, this is the plan.”

Things LEADERS Don't Say:

“Trust me. There will be plenty of opportunities out there for you someday.”

From Things LEADERS Say, page 58.

Tony Hsieh, 1973-2020

“For me, my role is about unleashing what people already have inside them that is maybe suppressed in most work environments.”

“LEADERS who micro-manage spend more time looking down than looking up.”

“A LEADER is not someone who takes on all tasks and responsibilities.

A LEADER is someone who empowers and inspires others to achieve as a team for the greater good of the organization.”

Things LEADERS Say:

"This is a very important project.
I'd like to bring you along so you can contribute and develop."

Things LEADERS Don't Say:

"This is a very important project.
I've got to tackle this one on my own."

Let it go!

Foster a POSITIVE
working environment.

Master the ART of Appreciation.

“Managers often see the negative in people.

Mentors see the potential.”

Clients do not come first.
Employees come first.
If you take care of your employees, they will take care of the clients.

- Richard Branson

“I’ve got a new employee working for me on September 1st.”

“You have a new mentorship beginning on September 1st.”

CFO: “What if we develop our people and they leave?”

CEO: “What if we don't develop them and they stay?”
