Understanding the Importance of Penetration Testing in Cyber Security Programs

July 16, 2020

1:00 pm - 2:00 pm

Zoom Webinar,
Will require registration

Organizations should have a robust cyber security program, especially in the healthcare sector. This session will provide a review of a compliant cyber security program as well as take a deeper dive into the area of penetration testing. Security vulnerabilities can happen with any IT system, necessitating the need for penetration testing. This session will provide a high-level overview of the goal of penetration testing and answer misconceptions participants may have.
