Special Guest for TODAY'S Live Update

Join our live online coronavirus update this afternoon, for a discussion of the role of technology in social isolation—during COVID-19 and beyond. The pandemic has spurred interest from aging services providers, caregivers, residents, and families in technologies to compensate for social distancing, limited visitation, and quarantine conditions. Register now to join us and our special guest, LeadingAge CAST Executive Director Majd Alwan for a conversation about products and programs that keep older adults connected and engaged. (Today, you'll also hear from Alison Salopeck of Jennings Center for Older Adults in Ohio on a unique outdoor visiting program.)

A Meaningful Day of Remembrance

This week, hundreds of individuals and organizations from around the world came together to honor older adults who have passed away due to coronavirus. Wednesday's Global Ageing Network Remember the Elders of Coronavirus Day was filled with beautiful tributes to the elders who we have lost worldwide during the coronavirus pandemic. Your messages were heard far and wide as over 400 heartfelt posts flooded social media. We created a short montage video showcasing just a few of the incredible tributes.
