

Excellence in Volunteer Service

The Excellence in Volunteer Service Award is awarded to an individual or group whose exemplary volunteer service plays a critical role enriching the lives of those served by a LeadingAge Ohio member organization.

This nominee(s):

- Demonstrates value of time and services to members of the organization
- Demonstrates consistent interaction and promotion of a positive view of the organization
- Inspires others through actions, knowledge and/or experiences

Application Question for Excellence in Volunteer Service

Using the criteria of the award listed above, what do you most want the judges to know about this nominee that compelled you to make this nomination?

