Following are the latest news and resources.

Join Us for a National Day of Action This Wednesday

With negotiations stalled on the next coronavirus relief package, we need Congress to act for older adults before they leave Washington, DC. The "Act For Older Adults" campaign is rallying Americans from all walks of life to add their voice to ours. Join us Wednesday, for a National Day of Action for aging services providers. Look for an Action Alert that will make it easy for you, your staff, and residents to send emails or make phone calls asking for essential relief for aging services providers. You can also use these pre-drafted posts on your own social media platforms.

Today is the Provider Relief Deadline for Private Pay Only AL and Nursing Homes

The deadline for private pay-only licensed assisted living providers and nursing homes to apply for Provider Relief Funds is today by close of business day (typically, this has meant 11:59 p.m. ET). Learn more about the extension, and these new articles on PRF:
