Black Student Scholarship Application

Application Deadline: Via email by September 6, 2024, 5 pm

The purpose of the Black Student Scholarship Program is to provide a to cover the costs to attend the MAP Planning Michigan Conference at Amway Grand Hotel in Grand Rapids, September 25-27, 2024. The scholarship has no cash value, and will be used exclusively to cover costs associated with attendance at the 2024 MAP Conference, including conference registration, travel and accommodations.

The MAP Annual Planning Michigan Conference is an impactful opportunity that fosters motivation, inspiration, and new ideas among its participants, bringing positive benefits to students in the community planning profession. The objective of the scholarship is to provide access to Black planning students who might not otherwise be able to attend.

The opportunity to choose a mentor will be provided to each conference scholarship recipient onsite to help navigate the conference, broker introductions, facilitate networking, and generally provide support and guidance that will enhance the scholarship recipient's experience. A Black student and professional luncheon is also included.

Send the completed application as one PDF in the following order: application, statement of interest, and resume to abrown@planningmi.org by 5:00 pm September 6, 2024.
