

The Loss of a Roofing Industry Leader

The Passing of Patricia H. Keating - Westchester and Oak Park, Illinois
1925 – 2020

CRCA Executive Director Emeritus, Patricia (Patty) Keating passed away on September 28, 2020, age 95. Patty worked with her husband, Bill Keating, managing the Chicago Roofing Contractors Association from 1969 until Bill's death in 1977. Moving forward solo, she became one of the first female Executive Directors of construction contracting associations.

She greatly exceeded in this role with a keen eye for facilitating the association's goals through relationship building and a great deal of hard work. She was highly respected by CRCA members and leadership during her 34-year tenure and was the heart of CRCA for many years.

As a trailblazer in the industry, she opened many doors for women.
