ABOUT CERTA

In 1986, the Midwest Roofing Contractors Association (MRCA) in conjunction with industry organizations, the Asphalt Roofing Manufacturers Association, and United Union of Roofers, Waterproofers and Allied Workers developed a curriculum to train roofing workers in the safe application of torch-applied roof systems. This program was named the Certified Roofing Torch Applicator (CERTA) program.

With continuing changes in technology, federal regulations and work practices, it became necessary for MRCA to revise and update the CERTA program. With the cooperation of contractors, manufacturers and other associations, MRCA created the ad-hoc CERTA Committee.

In 2003, insurance industry representatives approached NRCA to address concerns about increasing incidents and losses occurring during roofing workers' torching activities. NRCA recognized torching activities are and will continue to be a major part of the roofing industry, and roofing workers traditionally have been trained on torch use with on-the-job techniques. On-the-job training methods typically focus on application skills without adequately addressing safety concerns. The need for focused safety training addressing torching activities became apparent. NRCA arranged with MRCA to adopt and revise the CERTA program. The current CERTA program provides the best practices and new industry requirements for torching activities.

CERTIFIED ROOFING TORCH APPLICATOR PROGRAM

YOUR SOURCE FOR TORCH DOWN ROOF SYSTEM SAFETY TRAINING

Q: ARE THERE DATA TO SUPPORT REDUCED FIRE LOSSES IN THE ROOFING INDUSTRY DIRECTLY ATTRIBUTABLE TO THE NEW NRCA/MRCA CERTA PROGRAM?

A: Yes. The number of serious roofing torch-related fire incidents has decreased significantly since 2004 when the new MRCA/NRCA CERTA program was implemented in the roofing industry. For example, in 2002, one major insurance company paid 35 roofing torch-related fire losses of more than $1,000 and 11 of more than $500,000. In 2005, after only one year of the new MRCA/NRCA CERTA program implementation, the same insurance company paid 13 losses of more than $1000, including only two of more than $500,000. The MRCA/NRCA CERTA program had made a significant effect on the safe use of roofing torches throughout the roofing industry.

Q: WHO RECEIVES CERTIFICATION?

A: Individual roofing workers become certified roofing torch applicators, NOT a roofing company. The certification belongs to and stays with an individual roofing worker not his employer.

Q: HOW SOON MUST I HAVE MY TORCH APPLICATORS TRAINED?

A: A roofing contractor will need to contact his insurance company to determine the grace period allowed to get his torch applicators trained.

Kelly Lea General Manager
TEXAS ROOF MANAGEMENT INC. Richardson, Texas
We at Texas Roof Management INC believe the CERTA Program is one of the most important safety programs we utilize. We make sure that all of our roofing and service techs, around 70 employees, maintain their CERTA Training. As a result of CERTA Training, our jobsites and crews are safer and our clients are free of potential liability.

In addition although our Insurance carrier does not require CERTA Training is it a positive mark on our yearly renewal.

TAME THE FLAME.

In 2007, NRCA retained Hughes Associates INC., a nationally recognized fire consulting firm, to help plan and conduct a test program designed to investigate heat transmission through component layers of torch-applied polymer-modified bitumen membrane flashings during installation over combustible roof decks. Based on the findings, the CERTA guidelines were revised. Direct torching over combustible substrates (with specific stipulations) was allowed.

CERTA delivers these requirements through a certification program where authorized trainers delivering effective behavior-based training to roofing workers. MRCA continues to work with NRCA to make sure the program is up-to-date

Q: WHAT HAPPENS IF A ROOFING WORKER DOES NOT PASS A REGISTERED CERTA APPLICATOR TRAINING CLASS?

A: The roofing worker must attend another registered CERTA applicator training session conducted by an authorized trainer and repeat the section of the class he failed until he successfully meets the programs passing requirements.

Q: HOW LONG IS THE TRAINING VALID?

A: The authorized status and certification of a torch applicator are valid for three years after the date they successfully passed their respective program.

Q: MY COMPANY ONLY USES ROOFING TORCHES TO DRY OR REPAIR ROOFS. WE DO NOT INSTALL MODIFIED BITUMEN ROOF SYSTEMS. DOES CERTA APPLY TO ME?

A: Yes. All personnel using roofing torches with open flames in contact with a roof or adjacent building component must successfully complete the MRCA/NRCA CERTA torch applicator training.

and of the highest quality. There is no comparable training program available in the roofing industry.

The CERTA training program is ideal for contractors whose work involves torch applications. The full-day program trains experienced roof system installers on the safe use of roofing torches used to apply polymer-modified bitumen roofing products. CERTA training shows how proper roof system configuration design and application techniques can result in fire-safe installations.

WELDING SAFETY

The CERTIFIED SAFE® program has been developed by the MRCA to address the needs of the Roofing Industry to train its workers in the hazards that they might face during the installation of single ply roofing systems. In addition to the Hot Air and Induction Welding Safety Training Program, the CERTIFIED SAFE® program includes the CERTA Roofing Torch Safety training program and the SHARP Plus Safety programs.

The MRCA's Hot Air and Induction Welding Authorized User Safety Training

What is an “Authorized User” and what constitutes “Hot Air and Induction Welding Authorized User Level Training (HAWT)”?

The Safety Committee members of the Midwest Roofing Contractors Association determined that it is necessary to train a worker who uses hot air or induction welding equipment to Recognize the Specific Hazards associated with this type of work and to control these hazards as required under OSHA Standard 29 CFR 1926.21(b)(2).

The HAWT program provides a review of the basic awareness safety subjects

- First Aid
- PPE
- Fall Prevention
- Hazardous Materials

The Safety Committee also decided that the HAWT program must provide more in-depth training in the safety topics that present the greatest possibility of serious injury or property damage. The HAWT program focuses on providing each participant a genuine understanding of Hazard Recognition and the Electrical and Fire Hazards associated with the use of Electrical Generators, Hot Air Welders & Induction Welders. Each participant must also pass both a written exam and hands-on review to demonstrate an understanding of the proper application a of Hazard Controls while using this equipment.

Authorized User Certification is standardized safety instruction available only through the Midwest Roofing Contractors Association. Experienced instructors with years of installation experience make certain that your crew members are “Trained to a Higher Standard.”

WOMEN ROOFING CONTRACTORS
SUPPORTING FELLOW WOMEN ROOFING
CONTRACTORS

Women in Roofing (WinR) supports the success of women contractors in the roofing industry through peer relationships and education. WinR provides a place for women working in roofing companies to quickly and to efficiently relate to and to interact with others in similar roles with common interests and aspirations. We are contractors, raising the bar for our industry!

WOMEN IN ROOFING (WINR)

Opportunity

WinR is designed to support women roofing contractors through networking, education and mentorship. As a group, WinR can uniquely connect with other sub groups across all levels of the roofing industry in order to have a positive impact in the roofing industry as well as the construction industry in general. WinR seeks to share ideas in order to help reduce liability to its members while supporting this and the next generation of female roofing contractors. As our group elevates it can facilitate.

WinR exists to support the success of women as contractors in the roofing industry through peer relationships and education

Goals of WinR

The goals of WinR are both internal and external. First, we want to develop our talents to be the best and to share these practices within our membership. We believe that women who are roofing contractors strive to achieve the best practices in safety, installation, technical knowledge, problem solving and leadership.

Next, WinR's long-term goal is to change the perception of women in roofing through positive example of companies that contribute to the industry. We wish to set an example of the best practices in roofing through leadership, recognition, mentorship and networking. This effort helps ALL owners recognize the talents of all employees including ones that are female.

Finally, we want to use our collective power to develop and to drive new standards in our industry. This includes standards in client expectations, manufacturer relationships and training. We encourage our members to be active in all facets of the NRCA, the Roofing Alliance for Progress, NRLRC and local and regional roofing and sheet metal contractor associations.

Membership

Although the goals of the organization are broad, membership in WinR is exclusive to women who are roofing contractors. By a roofing contractor, we mean a company that has the primary mission of roofing and re-roofing and that no more than 20% of all labor is subcontracted. We do not extend membership to sales, manufacturers, legal, insurance, marketing and other company partners. Membership is by invitation only and each member is encouraged to invite other women contractors to the table.

Value

WinR understands and respects that everyone is time limited therefore all activities will be planned around 1. Other NRCA, NRLRC, etc. events, 2. Via Webinar, conference call or other means that reduce travel or any other expense 3. In other ways that our members feel valuable. The purpose of the organization is to enhance the strength of women executives by sharing information and ideas. We are NOT a social organization but we do encourage our members to build lasting relationships and friendships both within WinR and throughout the greater roofing industry. Additionally, in order to foster the notion of sharing best practices, we intend to host events at national and regional roofing association meetings. These are educational events and may take the form of a trade talk, panel discussion or other means to share best practices and information throughout the industry.

ABOUT YOUNG CONTRACTORS COUNCIL

The purpose of the Young Contractors Council is to be a resource for Roofing Industry Members 40 and under.

We provide opportunities for relationships that stimulate both personal and professional growth.

EDUCATION

YCC provides its Members with a broad range of education. Sessions are held in conjunction with the MRCA Annual Conference and Expo. They guide attendees through topics about how to better run their business, what tools are out there to handle everyday challenges, and where to find additional answers. The YCC also provides education on a small-group scale through webinars and one-on-one discussions.

FELLOWSHIP

One of the greatest benefits that YCC Membership has to offer is the fellowship. Though it is difficult to articulate, this benefit comes in several forms, and at unexpected times. There are of course opportunities to mingle with other YCC Members at official events and sessions, but there are many times "off the clock" when relationships build. This time together can provide the strongest and longest lasting relationships that yield benefits over an entire career. Having a connection to a group of people with similar Roofing Industry experiences and goals creates a sense of belonging, and the sense that together, you are a part of something bigger.

MENTORSHIP

Upon entering the YCC, you will be assigned a "Mentor Buddy". The intention is to create a relationship from day one with someone you can turn to with questions about activities that are new to you. These questions can be as simple as "what should I wear", or "where do I go". Mentors are current YCC Committee Members, and have experience in both YCC Membership and MRCA Membership. This is a casual partnership that's value is determined by the level of engagement the new Member would like to have.

DEVELOPMENT

Being the best means making an endeavor towards personal AND professional growth. The YCC is a resource that provides both. Peer-to-peer learning registers with people on several levels. This experienced-based technique is the best for retaining knowledge even above reading, watching videos, or listening to podcasts. Members of the YCC achieve this by being engaged with YCC-hosted events, networking, social media, mentorship, and subsequently developing relationships with a broader spectrum of the MRCA's Membership.

SERVICE

An annual service event is held each year by the YCC. Most events have a local focus to the area the MRCA visits with each Conference and Expo. This group understands the impact that is made when several hands do the work. They YCC was founded with one of its primary purposes being outreach to as many communities as possible.

INDUSTRY RESOURCES

This group provides a non-judgemental place for those who are new to the Roofing Industry to ask questions. Those questions are answered through both group activities, and through responses to emailed or online inquires. The YCC is a gateway for learning about the value of resources that come with MRCA Membership. Reaching out to fellow Members is not always the first thought when facing an issue at work, but it can provide the most direct, and best quality solution.

I can't tell you how important networking groups have been to my success. The past year with the YCC has introduced me to so many new people and I have learned so much. I'm excited to bring the future of roofing together so we can build connections and continue to learn from each other!

The purpose of the Young Contractors Council (YCC) is to help young roofing professionals establish contacts and develop leadership skills to succeed within the roofing industry.
The YCC is designed for roofing contractors
40 and under looking to meet with peers and mentors to share best practices, learn more about the roofing industry and network in a fun, social environment.
