

Hector Lizasuain is the Director of Government Affairs & Planning for Magic Development LLC, providing critical strategy, leadership, and execution working with local government and community organizations promoting and advancing Magic Development's multiple projects. Hector came to Magic Development with close to 20 years government and community leadership experience. Hector was the former Executive Director of the largest development authority in the State of Florida and largest tax base in Osceola County.

Hector has been a pivotal, transformative leader in raising his community's profile, visibility, and perception, attracting local and international investors, and now brings distinction and well deserved attention to Magic Development, LLC's product and company.