“We recognize that this year, the state of North Carolina will play an important role in the balance of power in Washington,” NCAB President, Steven D. Hammel said. “The Broadcasters of North Carolina have a long history of providing live, over-the air coverage of Senatorial debates. We’re thrilled to have network journalists moderate and to provide a platform for the candidates to talk about the issues important to the people of North Carolina.”

The hour-long debates will air live at 7:00 pm in every television market in North Carolina. Viewers are encouraged to check local listings for participating stations.
