

Tracking Legislative Activity

www.ncleg.net - The North Carolina General Assembly website has current information and several resources to keep you informed about state government actions. By clicking on the links below, you can:

- View a bill's language and status, as well as state statutes: <http://www.ncleg.net/Legislation/Legislation.html>
Once you have typed in the bill number, you will also be able to view the bill's voting history (i.e. whether it passed or failed) and by clicking on pass/fail you can find out who voted for it.
- Check out the calendars for upcoming meetings and legislative sessions: <http://www.ncleg.net>
From the home page, under the picture for both the House and Senate, you will find a link to a pdf file (updated daily) for both House and Senate Calendars. The calendar will provide:
  - bill introductions (by number and short title);
  - bills up for adoption;
  - bills in second and third readings;
  - time and location of committee meetings;
  - time and location of public hearings; as well as
- View a member's voting history/committee membership:
<http://www.ncleg.net/Legislation/voteHistory/voteHistory.html> - When you click on Voter History Report, you will then be prompted to click on a representative's name to find out his/her voting history per session.
- Locate who represents you and your stores in both the state House and state Senate:
<http://www.ncleg.net/GIS/RandR07/Representation.html>
- Listen to live audio of House and Senate sessions, committee hearings, and press conferences at the General Assembly while they are in progress: <http://www.ncleg.net/Audio/Audio.html>
When the legislature is in session (typically from 7:00 on Monday evenings until 2:00 on Thursday afternoons) you can listen to live, real-time audio of the daily House and Senate sessions, press conferences in the Press Conference Room, and meetings held in the Appropriations and Finance Committee Rooms. Refer to the Legislative Calendar for meeting and press conference schedules.

Additional Information to Help You Keep Track of Legislation:

Bill Status

The Legislative Library provides up-to-minute information on bills. The library is located in Room 2226 of the legislative building, 16 West Jones Street, Raleigh, NC 27601, and can be reached by letter or phone (919) 733-7770. Tell them the general topic of the bill you're interested in and they can give you the bill number, bill sponsor and where the bill is moving in the legislative process.

Printed Bills

Printed copies of bills can be obtained from the Printed Bills Office, Room 2021 of the legislative building. They may be obtained in person, by mail or by phone (919) 733-5648. There is no charge for this service. Information on when a particular bill is to be considered can best be obtained from the chairman of the committee or his/her legislative assistant. When the legislature is in session, any member of the House or Senate can be reached through the legislative switchboard at (919) 733-4111.

Committee Schedules

Regular committee schedules can be obtained through the Principal Clerk of the Senate, Room 2020, Phone (919) 733-7761 or the Principal Clerk of the House, Room 2319, Phone (919) 733-7760.
