“It was our job to uphold the integrity of the purebred business, through the livestock record-keeping organizations. Without bringing all species together that would have been a little more difficult to do, because we almost acted as policemen for each other. The integrity of the record system is the major reason for this organization existing.”

— Maurice E. Core, former Executive Secretary of the American Jersey Cattle Association and past president of the National Dairy Shrine

Announcing the NPLC 100th Anniversary Jubilee History!

Zane Akins, NPLC Secretary/Treasurer

This year the National Pedigreed Livestock Council is 100 years old! What began as the National Society of Live Stock Record Associations on January 3, 1911, has worked for a century promoting the benefits of livestock registry for the improvement of livestock breeds and the betterment of our society. Today, the NPLC represents more than 500,000 livestock breeders through its member associations and organizations in the same dedication to the importance of livestock registry.

We have commissioned a commemorative book detailing our story. This historical reference, titled The National Pedigreed Livestock Council, 1911-2011: A Century of Service to Breeders of Pedigreed Livestock, is a photo

- Handsome hardcover
- 80 pages
- Archival paper
- Many photos, some in color!

and text panorama of livestock registry during the past 100 years. It is the only publication other than our bi-annual directory we have ever published.

Don't miss the opportunity! A centennial comes around only every 100 years! Make sure you order your copy by filling out this reservation form today.

“A generation which ignores history has no past and no future.”

— Robert Heinlein (1907 – 1988)

“We’re all in the same business. It’s a people business and it’s agriculture and we all have similar issues.”

— Craig Huffhines, Executive Vice President, American Hereford Association and Member of the NPLC Board of Directors

“NPLC provides a great opportunity to visit with the other registries to see what’s going on with them, discuss what kind of problems they have, determine what works well in solving them, and what hasn’t worked so well...an incredibly great sharing opportunity.”

— Debbie Fuentes, Registrar, Arabian Horse Association, President NPLC 2010-2011
