

Diagnostic support
you can count on.
Because every woman
counts on you.

Practicing Evidence-Based Medicine in Managing STIs

In this presentation we will address the public health concern of sexually transmitted infections (STIs) and how Universal Screening can improve patient care through established screening guidelines. Additionally, we will discuss symptomatic STI testing, management for Trichomoniasis, as well as testing and treatment for Mycoplasma genitalium.

REGISTER
HERE

Date, Time and Location

Wednesday, September 11, 2024
6:30pm
Morton's The Steakhouse

Kyle Bukowski, MD, FACOG

Dr. Kyle Bukowski is the Medical Director for the Diagnostics Division of Hologic.

- Former Chief Medical Officer for Planned Parenthood of Maryland.
- Medical degree and residency training from David Geffen School of Medicine at the University of California - Los Angeles
- Comprehensive Obstetrician/Gynecologist with a focus on complex family planning
- Fellow of the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists
- Additional education in Women and Gender Studies

Registration

RSVP Link:

<https://bit.ly/HologicSeptember11>

Use the link above to register and RSVP for the event.

Event Address

Morton's The Steakhouse
1600 W. Second St.
Cleveland, OH 44113

Additional Notes

For any additional questions, please contact Sarah DuRant at (912) 659-3320.