

OHIO CENTER
FOR LAW-RELATED
EDUCATION

Partnering with Teachers to Bring Citizenship to Life

Constitution Camp

June 19-20, 2017

Ohio Center for Law-Related Education
1700 Lake Shore Dr.
Columbus, OH 43204

Is the Freedom of Press the Most Important Right in the First Amendment?

Monday, June 19

9:30 am	Registration Opens; Light Breakfast Provided
9:50	Welcome, Introductions
10:00	Introduction to Inquiry and the 3C Framework in the Social Studies Classroom
10:30	Topics 1 – What rights are outlined in the First Amendment? <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Professor Dan Tokaji, professor of law, Ohio State University Moritz College of Law
11:45	Debrief & Teaching Strategies
12:30 pm	Lunch (provided)
1:00	Topic 2 – How does the press serve as a check on the government? <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Karen Kasler, bureau chief, Statehouse News Bureau
2:15	Break
2:30	Debrief & Teaching Strategies
3:15	What is We the People: The Citizen and the Constitution ?
4:00	Dismiss

Tuesday, June 20

9:30 am	Registration Opens; Light Breakfast Provided
9:50	Welcome, Introductions
10:00	Topic 3 – Is the freedom of press unlimited? <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Professor Susan Gilles, professor of law, Capital University Law School
11:15	Debrief & Teaching Strategies
12:00 noon	Lunch (provided)
12:30	Authentic Assessment: Simulated Congressional Hearing Preparations
1:45	Break
2:00	Authentic Assessment: Simulated Congressional Hearing Simulation
3:00	Debrief
3:30	Dismiss