

Songs at the Center

Join us in the Ballroom for Songs at the Center with Eric Gnezda, Keith Larsen, and Jamie Sagle!

You are invited to an extraordinary evening of entertainment with songwriters who have appeared on the national TV show, Songs at the Center. The show, produced in Ohio and syndicated across America to more than 150 public television stations, showcases the live energy of songwriters singing their own songs and telling the stories behind them—in a Nashville-style “round,” similar to what you see at Music City’s world-famous Bluebird Café.

The featured performers are the creator and host of the TV show, Eric Gnezda, along with Jamie Sagle and Keith Larsen.

Please join us for a fun evening of entertainment as we transform a hotel ballroom into an intimate listening room of songs, stories, and laughter. A night you won't forget...with Songs at the Center!
