Program Presented by Barb Garrison, Safety & Environmental Solutions, OFDA OSHA Consultant

This OSHA training will feature a section on how to conduct a Personal Protective Equipment Hazard Assessment — an OSHA requirement all funeral homes MUST comply. It is IMPORTANT that all funeral homes send at least ONE representative to attend the annual OSHA training seminar. In addition, refresher training on OSHA's Bloodborne Pathogens and Formaldehyde regulations will be provided. This annual training is REQUIRED for all funeral home employees who have exposure to bloodborne pathogens and/or formaldehyde. A brief overview of the training:

- Personal Protective Equipment Hazard Assessment
- OSHA'S Hazard Communication Standard
- Bloodborne Pathogens Standard
- Formaldehyde Standard
- Emergency Action Plans
- Questions & Answers

IMPORTANT:

Annual training is provided to satisfy the OSHA and Workers' Compensation Group Rating Program regulations. It is VITAL to send at least one funeral home employee to receive training.
