OFDA MIDWINTER CONFERENCE

OUTRIGGER Kona Resort & Spa

Kona, Hawaii

Join the Ohio Funeral Directors Association for an unforgettable education conference in the breathtaking setting of Kona on Hawai'i island. Held at the newly renovated OUTRIGGER Kona Resort and Spa, the OFDA MWC blends meaningful professional development (12 hours of CE!) with the opportunity to relax, recharge, and connect with peers on island time! Experience engaging sessions, valuable networking and the spirit of aloha—where advancing your profession meets the beauty and tranquility of paradise. Perched on the cliffs of Keauhou Bay, the spectacular views pair perfectly with cultural activities available.

GROUP FLIGHT OPTIONS:

If booking through Roy's Stow Travel, the actual price of the flight plus a $50 booking fee will be charged to your final invoice. The $1,000 per flight price noted in the registration is only an ESTIMATE. Group air travel will be booked through United Airlines from your home airport to Honolulu for pre-trip (a block of tickets has been secured, $750 per traveler from Cincinnati, Cleveland and Columbus) or Kona if traveling directly to our Midwinter location. If attending the pre-trip, air travel will be booked through Southwest Airlines from Honolulu to Kona & is INCLUDED in the pre-trip price.

If you prefer to use your own credit card for points purposes for either flight, OFDA will connect you with Roy's Stow Travel to pay direct through the airline. While Roy's Stow Travel will pay close attention to the bookings and corresponding air travel seat selections, there is no guarantee that travelers will have adjacent seats, although we have greater control than previous years to accommodate adjacent seats and ticket access prior to date of travel.

To book your trip, please visit bit.ly/4s2hGuK. A 50% deposit is due at time of booking. Final payments will be due October 16, 2026. Cancellations will be accepted up to the the final payment date, October 16, 2026. If credit card payment was used for initial booking, a 3% cancellation fee will be imposed.
