

Hotel Administration Certificate

This certificate will assist students interested in Hotel Management to gain the basic skills and knowledge to step into an entry-level position. Within the certificate are courses that will offer certifications from the American Hotel & Lodging Educational Institute. The AH&LEI is a professional organization that offers certifications. Certifications from the American Hotel & Lodging Educational Institute is the ultimate distinction of professional excellence for the hospitality industry. Students who complete the Hotel Administration certification can easily move into the Hotel, Tourism & Event Management degree as all of the courses will apply to that major.
