A FALL FUTURE OF LODGING SUMMIT
Wednesday, October 11, 2023 • Cincinnati

The Education & Workforce Development Committee is planning to hold two summits this year. Our Inaugural Future of Lodging Summit was very successful in getting the feedback we needed from those attending. With the actionable outcomes of our inaugural summit, we are able to expand on several topics of importance. The 2023 summits will mirror each other in content, promotions and some sponsorships.

WORK SESSION #1
Flexibility is Essential

There IS flexibility in the industry. Multiple ways to get into the Lodging and Hospitality Industry; Multiple opportunities to use your skills or degree in the industry.

WORK SESSION #2
Empowerment into Development

Join in discussions on supportive communications toward growth; build a road map. What does it take?

WORK SESSION #3
A Panel Discussion — DEI Includes You

As we work to build the industry's workforce, join in and hear from a variety of sources on how they are approaching diversity, equity and inclusion.

Full Sponsorship descriptions will be listed in the OHLA Website Events Tab and online communications.
