

2008 O.H.S.B.C.A. HANK MILLER MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

Each year the Board of Directors selects several individuals to be awarded our "Hank Miller Memorial Scholarship". An eligible applicant must be a graduating son or daughter of a coach who has been an OHSBCA member for a minimum of five consecutive years. This year 16 worthy students have been awarded a $750 scholarship.

Hank Miller, Canton McKinley High School, was inducted into The OHSBCA Hall Of Fame in 1975. Hank was a teacher of Industrial Arts and Vocational Carpentry for 39 years. He retired from Canton City Schools in 1989. He coached many sports including tennis, golf, basketball, but football and undoubtedly baseball were his favorites. He was a World War II veteran who served in the Marine Corps. Hank graduated from Canton Township High School (Canton South) in 1942 and earned his college degree from Ohio Northern. His coaching career started at Mogadore High School with coaching stints at Louisville, Canton Lincoln, Canton McKinley, and Glen Oak High Schools. Hank was a lifetime member of the National Education Association. Hank was President of the OHSBCA in 1982. He officiated basketball and served as recreational director for the city of Louisville. Hank is a member of the Greater Canton Amateur Sports Hall of Fame and the Ohio Northern University Athletic Hall of Fame. He was founder of the Hank Miller High School baseball series.

LEE BAIR, GRAHAM HIGH SCHOOL – Lee is the son of Larry and Deana Bair. His father is the head baseball coach at Graham High School. At Graham Lee was on the Miami Valley Baseball Coaches Association All-Academic team and captain his senior year. He was a member of the National Honor Society. He is currently a freshman at Hocking College majoring in Police Science and attending the Ohio Police Officers Training Academy. His goal is to become a member of the S.W.A.T. or S.R.T. team.

GRANT BARBOUR, ST. JOSEPH HIGH SCHOOL – Grant is the son of Rick and Kathy Barbour. His father is the head baseball coach at Toledo St. Joseph's High School. Grant was 2nd team all-state in football his senior year and 2nd team all-state in baseball his senior year. At St. Joe's, Grant was involved in the National Honor Society and was Academic All-Ohio his senior year. Grant is a freshman at Defiance College majoring in health and physical education. His goal is to become a physical education and health teacher and coach baseball and football.

KRISTIN CAHILL, KETTERING ALTER HIGH SCHOOL – Kristin is the daughter of Bruce Cahill and Mary Jane Collins. Her father is the head baseball coach at Tipp City High School. At Kettering Alter Kristin was a member of the National Honor Society, received first honors all 4 years, a varsity football and basketball cheerleader and the peer ministry president. Kristin is a freshman at Miami University studying gerontology and psychology. Her goal is to earn a degree that will allow her to make a difference in the lives of others through medicine, psychology or social services.

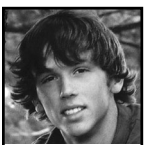

BRODI CONOVER, LEBANON HIGH SCHOOL – Brodi is the son of Jamie and Amy Conover. His father is the assistant baseball coach at Lebanon High School. At Lebanon Brodi was a 6 time Harmon Civic Trust Scholar Athlete, 4 year Warrior "L" Leadership Award winner, and earned the Principal's Award for the top 10% of this class for 4 years. Brodi was named Academic All-Ohio by both the baseball coaches association and the golf coaches association. Brodi is a freshman at Georgetown University studying international politics with an emphasis in International Law, Organization, and Ethics. His goal is to attend law school upon graduation from Georgetown and then enter the legal profession or a career in public service.

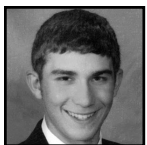

ANGELA FACKLER, KENTON HIGH SCHOOL – Angela is the daughter of Brent and Diane Fackler. Her father is the head baseball coach at Kenton High School. Angela received 8 varsity letters during her high school career in basketball, track and volleyball. Angela was on the Honor Roll all 4 years at Kenton. Angela is proud of the way her parents and her involvement in sports have prepared her for the rest of her life. Angela is a freshman at Ohio State University in Lima majoring in early childhood education. Her goal is to teach elementary school and work with young people.

ALICIA GIANNELL, PERRY HIGH SCHOOL – Alicia is the daughter of Pat and Sue Giannell. Her father is the assistant baseball coach at Perry High School in Lake County. Alicia was a 4 year letterman in track and 3 year letterman in basketball. At Perry Alicia was involved in the Sportsmanship Committee, was the Varsity Club President for 2 years, received the Academic Excellence Award 4 years, was the Archie Griffin Sportsmanship Award winner and a member of in the National Honor Society. Alicia is a freshman at John Carroll University majoring in education and running track. Her goal is to become a high school social studies teacher and coach.

BRETT GRIESER, STRYKER HIGH SCHOOL – Brett is the son of Jon and Connie Grieser. His father is the head baseball coach at Stryker High School. Brett was a 4 year member of the baseball and basketball programs at Stryker. He was inducted into the National Honor Society and received the U.S. Army Reserve National Scholar Athlete Award. Brett is a freshman at Northwest State Indiana Wesleyan University majoring in elementary education. His goal is to become a teacher and a coach.

BRIAN KUBUSKI, ELYRIA CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL – Ben is the son of Tom and Marti Kubinski. His father is the head baseball coach at Elyria Catholic High School. Brian was a 3 year lettermen in baseball, earning honorable mention All-Ohio in Div. III. He was a 2 year lettermen in basketball and a 2 year lettermen in cross country. At Elyria Catholic Brian was involved in Key Club, Yearbook, SADD, Leadership Council, Special Olympics and was the North Coast John Peyton Meritorious Award winner for 2007. Brian is a freshman at Baldwin Wallace majoring in English and playing baseball. His goal is to be a sports journalist.

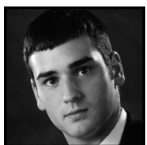

MARK LINDSEY, RIVER VIEW HIGH SCHOOL – Mark is the son of Rod and Sarah Jane Lindsey. His father is the head baseball coach at River View High School and a past president of the OHSBCA. At River View Mark was on the honor roll 2 years, merit roll 2 years, and registered in the Who's Who among American High School Students. Mark is an avid hunter and fisherman. He was a 12 year member of 4-H. Mark is a freshman at Ohio State University-Newark majoring in animal science and playing baseball. His goal is to earn an undergraduate degree in animal science and a master's degree in meat science from The Ohio State University.

RYAN MOUCH, TOLEDO ST. JOHN'S HIGH SCHOOL – Ryan is the son of Ed and Beth Mouch. His father is the head baseball coach at Toledo St. John's High School. Ryan was an honorable mention all-city recipient in baseball for 2 years. He was on the all-city academic team his senior year. At St. John's he was in the National Honor Society, and Summa cum Laude for 4 years. He was a big brother and a member of Titan Pride for 4 years. Ryan is a freshman at Oberlin College majoring in history while taking the pre-med option. His goal is to go to graduate school and become an orthopedic doctor.

KYLIE REISER, ELMWOOD HIGH SCHOOL – Kylie Reiser is the daughter of Kyle and Kelli Reiser. Her father is the head baseball coach at Elmwood High School. Kylie was a 2 year letterman in softball. At Elmwood she was a two year member of National Honor Society and a 4 year member of student council, and served as president her senior year. Kylie received an honors diploma from Elmwood High School. Kylie is currently a freshman at Owens Community College in Findlay. She plans on transferring to Bowling Green University and majoring in supply chain management. Her goal is to obtain a degree from Bowling Green University in business.

BRIAN SHRIMPTON, SYCAMORE HIGH SCHOOL – Brian is the son of Chris and Carla Shrimpton. His father is the head coach at Sycamore High School. At Sycamore Brian was an honor roll student and selected all-conference academic team his senior year. He was voted the most improved baseball player in 2007. Brian was a 4 year member of the baseball and football teams. Brian is a freshman at Georgetown College majoring in biology in the pre-med program. He is also a catcher on the baseball team. His goal is to work in the medical field as a physician or physician assistant.

ANDREW SINDEL, NEW ALBANY HIGH SCHOOL – Andrew is the son of Spence and Linda Sindel. His father is an assistant baseball coach at New Albany High School. At New Albany Andrew was a member of the 2004 Division III State Championship team. He is a 3 year baseball letterman, a 3 year football letterman and a member of the Division III Final Four Team in 2006. Andrew graduated from New Albany magna cum laud. He is a freshman at the Community College of Beaver County in Monaca, PA and is majoring in air traffic control. His goal is to become an air traffic controller.

WILLIAM "JAKE" STONE, TORONTO HIGH SCHOOL – Jake is the son of Bill and Karen Stone. His father is the assistant baseball coach at Toronto High School. At Toronto Jake was member of the baseball program for 4 years, a member of National Honor Society and a 2 year member of Key club. Jake was also the Art Robertson Memorial Award Scholarship winner for 2007. He is a freshman at West Liberty State College and majoring in education and playing baseball. His goal is to become a high school teacher and baseball coach.

JOSH THOMPSON, ELIDA HIGH SCHOOL – Josh is the son of Mark and Jami Thompson. His father is the head baseball coach at Elida High School. Josh was a 3 year letterman in baseball, 2 year letterman in football and a 2 year letterman in basketball. At Elida Josh was on the Western Buckeye League Sportmanship Committee for 4 years. Josh is a freshman at Bowling Green University majoring in business. His goal is to be a successful businessman.

REBECCA WHARTON, BLACKHAWK CHRISTIAN HIGH SCHOOL – Rebecca is the daughter of Jim and Cami Wharton. Her father is the head baseball coach at Crestview High School. Rebecca was a 4 year lettermen in basketball and a three year letterman in volleyball. At Blackhawk Rebecca was in the National Honor Society, active member of youth ministries 212, a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, student council vice president, homecoming queen her senior year and a recipient of the Helen V Groot Scholarship. Rebecca is a freshman at Purdue University and is majoring in dietetics and nutrition health fitness. Her goal is to obtain a masters degree, become a registered dietitian and practice at the collegiate level with Sports Dietetics.