He retired from Fairless in 1967. Mr. Brideweser became well-known in Ohio scholastic athletics. He amassed a 436-151 baseball record with 5 teams playing in the state finals in Columbus. He coached several undefeated football teams with a overall coaching record of 140-51-13. His basketball teams won several league championships including county and Sectional tournaments. During his high school career, his teams always played a difficult schedule vs. bigger schools. In 1972, he was presented with an Honorary Lifetime membership in the Ohio H.S. Football Coaches Association and on Aug. 4, 1977, he was posthumously inducted into their HOF in ceremonies at the All-Star game in Canton, OH. Fred's record as an athlete and a coach are not the only thing that made him great. His sincere concern for people, his loyalty and dedication to his job and his pride to the Fairless community were truly remarkable. In the 44 years that he was with us, he was never once heard to make an unkind remark about another person. By the same token, no other person was heard to make a derogatory remark about Fred Brideweser, the teacher, the coach or the man. Coach "Bridey" passed away on September 26, 1975. Inducted into OHSBCA Hall of Fame 1980.

John "Spark" Spankal – Eastlake North High School

John "Spark" Spankal began his career as a teacher and JV coach at Eastlake North in 1974 after graduating from Bowling Green State University with a degree in health and physical education. He moved to special education, was named head baseball coach, and received his Master's in Administration degree from Cleveland State all in the 1979-80 school year. He was selected as Lake County Learning Disabilities Teacher of the Year in 1982, and prior to retirement in 2005, Spark returned to teaching health for the two most enjoyable years of his teaching career. Currently he works part-time in the North special education department, volunteers on the North baseball staff, is an instructor at Super Joe's Baseball Academy, and is the secretary-treasurer of the Lake County Baseball Club, the local high school baseball coaches association. Having coached at all levels in the local summer leagues, Spark currently organizes and coaches the Shannon Fence team in the Tri-State Collegiate Summer Baseball League.

Spark's varsity baseball teams compiled a record of 439-272-2. Most of these games were played in the old Greater Cleveland Conference, an eight-school league that boasted not only four OHSBCA Hall of Fame coaches, but also seven coaches who won 300 games or more. "Against those guys," Spark jokes, "we established a legacy of finishing second." His teams' wins are the most by a coach at a single school in Lake County history. Under Spark the Rangers won three conference championships, played in the district 15 times, and made one regional appearance. He was selected as coach of the year twice by both the GCC and the Premier Athletic Conference. He was also a two-time coach of the year by the Cleveland Plain Dealer, three times by the Lake County News-Herald and four times by the Lake County Baseball Club. Spark coached in the 1998 Mizuno All-Star Series, and in 2005 was given the Ohio High School Athletic Association's Sportsmanship, Ethics, and Integrity Award. Six of his former players have gone on to play professionally.

Spark played both football and baseball at Mentor High School. He met his wife Jill (Sidney H.S.) at BGSU. They married and settled in Mentor to raise two sons. Jill, a retired second grade teacher in Mentor, was (and still is) the one who held things together while "my three boys were out playing." Oldest son Josh, a three-sport athlete at Mentor, graduated from Ohio University, works as a chemist for Barr Laboratories, and is doing grad work at Xavier University. He married his wife Jess (Milford, OU) in October and they live in Cincinnati. Twenty-three-year-old Jake was a member of Mentor's state-contending baseball and football teams. He played baseball at the College of Wooster graduating with a degree in Social Studies and minor in Art. Jake is currently an assistant baseball and strength coach at Case-Western University while doing graduate work in exercise science at Cleveland State. Both boys are OHSBCA Scholarship recipients.

Inducted into OHSBCA Hall of Fame in 2009.

Jeff Short – Westlake High School

Coach Jeff Short's tenure with the Westlake High School Demons began 27 years ago when he was named the freshman baseball coach in 1986. The next year he moved up to become the junior varsity coach and in 1989, he was named head coach. In 24 seasons as head coach, he compiled an overall record of 345-242 including 20 winning seasons. He was named Southwestern Conference Coach of the Year three times, named The Plain Dealer Coach of the Year twice, was a Greater Cleveland Baseball Coaches Association Coach of the Year and was inducted into the Northeast Ohio Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame in 2010. In May 2013 he received another honor as he was inducted into the Crow's Nest Hall of Fame by the Lake County Captains Baseball organization (Cleveland Indians Class A Affiliate). In 1996 was selected to Coach in the OHSBCA All-Ohio Series.

During his head coaching career, the Westlake Demons earned four Southwestern Conference championships, made 12 appearances in Districts, earned three regional appearances and in 2012, the team played for the Division I State Baseball Championship. No other team in the history of Westlake High School has ever made it to the state title game in any sport. The team finished 2012 with a 24-7 record, which are the most wins in school history.

What made the 2012 run to the state championship game even more special was that earlier that year; Coach Short announced that he would be retiring from coaching baseball at the end of the season. He remains a math teacher with the Westlake City Schools where he has taught for the past 28 years.

Coach Short was honored to represent Northeast Ohio as a Mizuno All-Ohio Series Coach in 1996. He was named the Greater Cleveland Baseball Coaches Association All-Star Game coach in 1996, 1997, 1998, 1999 and 2002, and has coached several Jacobs Field All-Star games over the years.

Coach Short has been a member of the OHSBCA for 25 years and served on the State Board from 1994-96. He also was a member of the State Coaches Poll.

Seven Westlake High School baseball players have been selected to the Mizuno All-Ohio series teams over the years. More than 50 players have signed on to play college baseball and one player signed a Major League Baseball contract. Former player Chris Holick (Westlake High School Class of 1995) is the current assistant baseball coach at The Ohio State University.

In addition to coaching baseball at Westlake High School, Coach Short has coached boys junior varsity and varsity boys basketball. He also was the girls varsity basketball head coach for three seasons. He continues to stay active with basketball as he currently serves as a basketball official in the Cleveland-area.

His motto for coaching and in life is to "always surround yourself with good people." He is grateful to his coaching staffs over the years for their support and dedication.

Jeff grew up in Archbold, Ohio (near Toledo) before moving to Northeast Ohio upon graduating from the University of Toledo with a degree in elementary education. He also holds a master's degree in Sports Management from Cleveland State University.

He resides in Avon, Ohio with his wife of 20 years, Julie Verba. The couple is the proud parents of a three-year-old son, Jason.
