

OHIO DEPARTMENT OF JOB AND FAMILY SERVICES PRESENTS

Fiscal Leadership Program 2026-2027

What is Fiscal Leadership Program?

The Fiscal Leadership Program (FLP) is developed by the Bureau of County Finance & Technical Assistance. The program is designed for county and state fiscal and program professionals.

The fourteen in-person sessions cover a high-level overview on a variety of state and federal fiscal topics and program areas.

Goals for participants who complete the Fiscal Leadership Program:

- Exposure to many program areas and fiscal processes.
- Strengthen management and leadership abilities which will positively impact and benefit their agencies.

Who Should Apply?

Acceptance into the program will require the following:

- Currently serving as a fiscal representative for a county family services agency (CFSa), a fiscal agent for a workforce development board or a program administrator.
- At least 1 year experience operating as a management level fiscal or program focused professional.
- You are committed to attend all Fiscal Leadership sessions.

How to Apply?

Complete the application:
