Conveniently renew when you sign up for automatic renewal using your credit/debit card. This means that at the beginning of the membership year, we will charge you automatically for the next membership period to guarantee uninterrupted access to benefits, services, and subscriptions. An e-mail reminder will be sent each January so that you'll know exactly when the transaction will take place. This message will contain any reminders or action(s) required on your behalf.