

The Greenbrier Conference

April 13, 14, & 15, 2012

Course Objectives:

After participating in the conference Physicians will:

- Recognize the most recent development(s) in the diagnosis, treatment and management of common clinical problems.
- Have an opportunity to interact with faculty in an informal setting; discuss current medical problems encountered in their medical practice.

Disclosure:

In compliance with the American Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education, the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) and Ohio University College of Osteopathic Medicine (OU-COM), CME speaker must report all affiliations and financial interest with pharmaceutical companies that may have direct bearing on the subject matter. The intent of the policy is that any relationships that may exist remain open so that viewers may form their own judgments about the presentation. Each speaker has signed a disclosure statement which is included on the flash drive.

Sponsorship:

This program is sponsored by the Scioto County Medical Society, the American Osteopathic Association and the American Academy of Family Physicians.

Credit:

OU-COM is approved as an accredited CME sponsor by the AOA. This program is approved for 10 hours of Category 1-A credit.

The AAFP invites comments on activities that have been approved by them. Please forward your comments on the quality of this program to: CMEcomments@aafp.com.
