CE PROGRAMS AND EVENTS OF SPECIAL INTEREST TO STUDENTS

FRIDAY, April 4

What's Next: The Ever Changing Landscape of Pharmacy Compounding

Lee Rosebush, PharmD, JD

This presentation will shed light on how the Drug Quality and Security Act is expected to impact pharmacy compounding as well as highlight past case law and recent legislative and FDA actions.

Ohio Research Forum 2014

Ohio pharmacists, college faculty, pharmacy residents and students showcase their cutting-edge and innovative research. The Poster Session, located outside the Exhibit Hall, will open at 4:10 p.m.

Ohio Innovative Practice Forum

Jennifer Rodis, PharmD, R.Ph., Tim Ulbrich, PharmD, R.Ph., and Panel of Practitioners

Innovative pharmacy practices and opportunities in Ohio will be showcased in this session, as well as resources for pharmacists to expand these services in their own practices. Practitioners from a variety of practice sites will share how they have successfully implemented services and overcome barriers to offer these patient-centered services. Immediately following this session, an Innovative Practice Showcase, located outside the Exhibit Hall, will be open. *Hosted by OPA's Center for Entrepreneurship

SATURDAY, April 5

Putting Your Best Foot in the Door!

Marialice Bennett, R.Ph.

This session will provide you the skills to be an advocate for your value as a pharmacist, begin interprofessional relationships, identify opportunities for team-based care and overcome resistance from providers.

Ohio's MTM Story

Justin Friesner, R.Ph., PharmD and Panel of Practitioners

Hear examples of active MTM programs throughout Ohio with emphasis on the personnel, intervention and billing.

Innovative Pharmacy Business Plan Competition 2014

The Business Plan Competition was created to cultivate student interest and confidence in developing or buying an independent pharmacy, as well as developing new business venues for pharmacists. Student plans include the loan request, mission statement, business description (legal structure, products or services provided, site analysis), marketing plan and financial reports. Finalists compete for cash awards.

Legislative Action and Advocacy: What Every Pharmacist MUST Know

Ernest Boyd, PharmD (Hon) and Antonio Ciaccia

Recent changes on the Federal level, including the Affordable Care Act and new compounding laws are impacting pharmacy practice. Currently, the Ohio Legislature has taken on more pharmacy issues than in the past 15 years. Legislation allowing pharmacists to administer a wider range of vaccines and expanding collaborative practice agreements with physicians, top the list. This session will update you on the laws, bills and legislative actions that dramatically transform pharmacy practice and also provide advocacy tips to move this legislation.

Pharmacy Succession: From Planning the Exit to Financing the Purchase

Panel TBD

This session is a must for student pharmacists who are interested in buying an independent pharmacy. Our panel will consist of financial planners, a pharmacy owner and junior partner, and a bank representative to provide helpful tips for the transition from previous owner to new owner. *Hosted by OPA's Center for Entrepreneurship

SUNDAY, April 6

New Drug Update 2014

Karen L. Kier, PhD, M.Sc., R.Ph.

Our speaker will examine the pharmacology and therapeutics of the prescription medications released in the past year. The drugs' indications, clinical applications, drug interactions, adverse effects and toxicities, and important patient counseling information will be included.

OTC and Self-Care Challenge

New Day for 2014

OPA's "OTC and Self-Care Challenge – Battle of the Colleges" is a highly interactive, fun-filled session that will enhance your OTC expertise and update your knowledge of common self-care conditions. Students and alumni for the seven schools of pharmacy will compete.

Using Social Media Effectively

Michael Doherty, R.Ph., PharmD and Antonio Ciaccia

Learn how to use social media to constructively portray yourself to your peers and to leverage social media to promote pharmacy initiative and your practice setting. Recognizing the "ripple effects" of social media and how they can be used to amplify your message till also be discussed.
