2012 SCAA Awards Program Nomination

Each year, SCAA presents individuals and organizations which have increased awareness of the public health crisis of SCA with service and leadership awards honoring their passion and dedication to increasing survivability of SCA and creating safer communities across the country that are better prepared to respond to cardiac emergencies.

SCAA is currently accepting nominations for the following awards:

- Public Leadership Award
- June Daugherty Public Spirit Award
- Public Service Award
- Corporate Leadership Award
- Medical Leadership Award

Due to SCAA's desire to award independent, objective and unbiased efforts, certain individuals and/or organizations will not be considered. Therefore, please refer to the Awards Criteria document for more information before completing and submitting nominations.

Nominations must be submitted to SCAA by July 12, 2012. Recipients will be announced in August, and the awards will be presented at the Friday, September 14, 2012 SCAA Survivor, Hero and Awards Dinner at the Rosen Shingle Creek Hotel, Orlando, Florida.
