SAVE THE DATE!

On September 30, 2017 St. John's Episcopal Church (Worthington) will host a day-long (9:00am – 5:00pm) workshop to recognize the 500th anniversary of Martin Luther's formal complaints – his 95 Theses – to the Church. That act is now seen as a tipping point for the full flowering of the Protestant Reformation. The workshop will begin with a focus on Luther but rapidly expand into a range of reforming movements that gained traction in 16th century Europe.

“Introduction to the Protestant Reformation” will feature a theologically diverse group of 6 speakers (three clergy and three academics) sharing their thoughts about seven pivotal 16th century reformers: Martin Luther & Philip Melancthon, Huldrych Zwingli, John Calvin & John Knox, Menno Simons & the Anabaptists, and Thomas Cranmer.

Join us as we learn together about the onset and shifting nature of the Reformation: who were the major reformers, what were their beliefs, how were they similar and different, who were their adherents, and where do we see their theologies in modern Protestant denominations?

Coffee, lunch, and a reception are all included in the price of admission: tickets purchased in advance will cost $25 (non-St. John's members) while tickets purchased at the door (subject to availability) will be $30.

More information – including the full schedule and registration form – can be found on our website.
