

Southern Ohio Synod
Lay School of Theology
FOR INSTRUCTION
THAT GOES BEYOND SUNDAY SCHOOL
FOR THE-PERSON-IN-THE-PEW

Lay School is a school for all who sit in the pew during Sunday morning worship-- you, the ones next to you, the ones around you—as well as already certified Lay Worship Leaders. The courses present an opportunity for you to enrich the fabric of your faith life; to gain more understanding of how God has been, and is still, at work in the lives of people of every age through his Word.

Qualified instructors teach courses that are geared mainly for the person-in-the-pew and are also for people who are already a certified Lay Worship Leader and in need of continuing education credit.

Winter/Spring and Fall courses are now offered at two campuses: Chillicothe and Dayton.

Tuition Registration for this course is $50.00 plus books that you will need to purchase. Please note: Registration fee is non refundable after the first class session.

Lunch is prepared for participants – a freewill offering will be received for the meal.

The class sessions for the following course will meet one Saturday a month for four (4) months at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, 901 E. Stroop Rd, Kettering, OH, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The building is handicap accessible.

2018 Winter Spring
New Course at Dayton Campus
“Reading the Gospels”

Dates: February 17, March 17,
April 21, May 19, 2018

Instructor: The Rev. Dr. Wray Bryant, Ph.D.
Assistant Professor, Religion and Philosophy at Capital, in Greek and Biblical Theology at Trinity
Seminary

Course Description: How can we read the Gospels so that we can more faithfully live our lives in conformity to the Gospel of Jesus Christ? What are the methods and strategies for reading the Gospels so that we can understand them in their original context? What are the methods and strategies for the reading of the Gospels so that we can hear them speaking to us today in our world? These are the three questions which this course seeks to explore. The goal of this course is to equip and empower students to be knowledgeable readers and doers of the Gospel.
