Biography for Guest Speaker:

The Rev. Kevin L. Strickland serves as the Assistant to the Presiding Bishop, Executive for Worship of the ELCA. He began his call with the churchwide office in August, 2014. Pastor Strickland believes that worship is central to our mission. "Worship is at the heart of our mission as Christ's church and provides an opportunity for us to be made whole and encounter the holy. Worship equips us to be disciples in this world, striving for justice and in doing so, we return often to the heart of our mission to be re-charged and fed."

Pastor Strickland has served on various local non-profit boards and has a heart for justice and advocacy ministry. He has written for a number of publications and has spoken around the ELCA in the areas of worship and preaching. Presently, he serves on the Consultation for Common Text, Resource Management Team with Augsburg Fortress, Chair of the International English Language Liturgical Consultation. He served as chair of the first-ever ELCA Rostered Ministers Gathering, the Entrance Rite Discernment Group, and other Churchwide committees.
