

An Enduring Sense

Visit Lancaster, Ohio

Historic Lancaster, founded three years before Ohio became a state, holds many treasures. Among them: three historic house museums, each a very different experience, centrally located within the National Register Historic District. Architectural historians have called this one of the largest and finest collections of 19th century homes in a concentrated area.

The Decorative Arts Center of Ohio (#1 on locator map) Reese-Peters House

145 East Main Street • Lancaster, OH 43130
740.681.1423 • www.decartsohio.org
Free admission (donations accepted), fee for groups of 10 or more
Open Tuesday-Sunday; 1:00 to 4:00 (Year round except holidays)

The Georgian Museum (#3 on locator map) Fairfield Heritage Association

105 East Wheeling Street • Lancaster, OH 43130
740.654.9923 • www.fairfieldheritage.org
Admission Charge • Open April - mid December
Open Tuesday-Sunday 1:00 to 4:00 pm. (Except holidays)
Open Jan., Feb., March by Appointment

The Sherman House Museum (#2 on locator map) Fairfield Heritage Association

137 East Main Street • Lancaster, OH 43130
740.687.5891 • www.shermanhouse.org
Admission Charge • Open April - mid December
Open Tuesday-Sunday; 1:00 to 4:00 pm (Except holidays)
Open Jan., Feb. March by Appointment

The Ohio Glass Museum (#4 on locator map)

124 West Main Street • Lancaster, OH 43130
740.687.0101 • www.ohioglassmuseum.org
Admission Charge
Open Tuesday-Sunday; 1:00 to 4:00 (Year round except holidays)

A recorded walking/driving tour of the Historic District is available at Shaw's Inn, 123 North Broad Street or the Fairfield County Visitors and Convention Bureau, Inc.

Brochure funded in part by:
Fairfield County Visitors and Convention Bureau, Inc.
124 West Main Street, Lancaster, Ohio 43130 (#5 on locator map)
800.626.1296 • visitfairfieldcounty.org

THE COLUMBUS
FOUNDATION
*The Center for Charitable Giving

FAIRFIELD COUNTY
FOUNDATION
Building A Legacy

LANCASTER OHIO

An Enduring Sense of Place

Of Place

Lancaster, Ohio