Get ready! Amy Simpson will take you on a thoughtful, vulnerable and even painful journey through the complex landscape of mental illness. Drawing on her latest clinical research, as well as her family's experience, Amy Simpson reminds us that people with mental illness are our neighbors and our brothers and sisters in Christ, and Christ calls us to love them well.

Amy Simpson is the award-winning author of Troubled Minds: Mental Illness and the Church's Mission and Anxious: Choosing Faith in a World of Worry (both InterVarsity Press). She also serves as editor of Gifted for Leadership, Senior Editor of Leadership Journal, and a speaker for various events. Amy is a Co-Active personal and professional coach for clients throughout the United States and enjoys coming alongside people to help them own their purpose, step forward, and live in truth. Amy is married to Trevor Simpson, a licensed clinical professional counselor, and is mom to two girls. They live in Illinois. You can find her at AmySimpsonOnline.com and on Twitter @aresimpson.
